A. W. Lair was elected president of the Buffalo Touchdown Club Monday night at an organizational meeting attended by 80 football fans.

Herman Brown of Lubbock, a past president of the Red Raider Club, "sang the blues" for Texas Tech, and discussed the football situation at the South Plains college. A tape-recorded interview with Buddy Shero, Tech assistant coach, carried the same theme.

Frank Kimbrough, Buffalo head coach, promised the club that the WT team would play its hardest against Tech, but did not promise a win. He discussed the need for more support for the college team among the football fans of the region and pointed out that the better-known opponents have been scheduled for the new stadium when it opens in 1959.

Kimbrough said that West Texas must have the support of fans by attending the games in order to make the athletic program at West Texas expand.

Ray Cullen of KGNC, Doug Rains of KFDD-TV and Ray McNally, KGNC sportscaster of WT games, pledged the support of their stations to the Touchdown Club and to West Texas.

Canyon High Coach Bill Davis discussed the win over Hereford last week and told of the prospects for the Perryton game.

During a discussion of ways to enlarge the Touchdown Club to embrace the fans of towns other than Canyon, it was suggested that the club be organized in the various towns and that the weekly meetings be switched among them.

Bob Clark was named the winner of the door prize of two tickets to the Tech game and two tickets on the special train. Other officers elected were M. R. Callahan, vice president, and Hosea Foster, secretary-treasurer.

The next meeting of the Buffalo Touchdown Club will be at 8 p. m. Monday in the West Texas State cafeteria. All football fans are invited and it is suggested that those who attend use the west entrance.

Federated Clubs Begin Plans for Christmas Card Project This Year

Representatives from the Canyon federated clubs met Monday afternoon in the American Legion Hall to formulate plans for a Christmas card project to be used to raise money for a community center for Canyon.

Mrs. Dick Louder, chairman, conducted the meeting. The group decided to handle the donations by opening an account at the First National Bank under the title of Christmas Card Fund to which persons wishing to donate could do so by filling out a deposit slip and designating it for the fund.

In filling out deposit slips, donors are to write Christmas Card Fund in the space in which the depositor normally writes his name. Under this the donor is to put Care of Jean Louder and then signs his own name on the lower half of the slip where the amount deposited is written.

Both the original and carbon slips are left at the bank. A check on and a listing of the names and amount of money are to be made each week.

The representatives also decided to contact women from the three clubs, the Woman's Book Club, the Junior Woman's Book Club and the Sue Hite Club, who would in turn contact various organizations in Canyon and tell them of the project.

The Christmas card project to be used in Canyon is such as has been used by Hereford and Friona. Persons participating in the project donate the money they would normally have spent to send Christmas cards to friends in Canyon. Greetings to persons living out of Canyon are sent as usual.

Mrs. Louder represents the Junior Woman's Book Club; Mrs. Dudley Moore Sr., the Woman's Book Club; and Mrs. R. P. Jarrett, the Sue Hite Club. The three clubs voted to sponsor the project following the proposal of the project made by Mrs. R. A. Neblett at the Tri-Club Luncheon last spring.

Take the Train, Tickets to Tech

Tickets for the special train to Lubbock Saturday, which will take fans within two blocks of Jones Stadium, are on sale at nine places in Canyon, Happy, Tulia and Amarillo.

Round trip tickets will be $4.10 from Amarillo, and $3.25 from Canyon, Happy and Tulia. Children between five and 11 will ride for half fare.

The schedule calls for the train to leave Amarillo at 3:45, leave Canyon at 4:40, leave Happy at 5:05 and leave Tulia at 5:25. It will arrive at Jones Stadium at 7:05 p. m. and will leave the stadium 30 minutes after the game. The train will remain parked two blocks from the stadium during the game.

Comes Up, Time and Time Again

This is the season of the year when more editorials are written about ad valorem taxes than most any other subject. And many of the editorials are suggesting that this county, that city or the other school district needs an equalization program to even up the values placed on property.

There are lots of inequities in our local taxing system, many of which are general knowledge and others which are not too well known. And we in Canyon and Randall County go along with them year after year, just as do most of the other counties and cities in the state.

Practically everyone knows full well that city property bears a disproportionate share of taxes. That holds true in practically every county, it seems. In some counties where there are great numbers of oil wells, the wells carry the load and the rest of the property gets along with light valuations.

There are other inequities. Utilities, pipelines and railroads are on the tax rolls with a value of the cost of materials. Most buildings are on the tax rolls with a value of the cost of materials plus the cost of labor. Your home has a materials-plus-labor valuation.

Unfair, you think. The whole taxing system as used by our local governments is full of unfairness. You may notice that the valuation of your buildings, whether your home or some other building, does not depreciate on any sort of schedule although the actual market value is a little less each year.

About the only thing that our local governments tax that operates as it should is motor vehicles. The tax agencies use a "blue book" of values that gives a lower cost each year for the different types, models and makes of vehicles. Therefore, the taxable valuation of your car goes down each year—it is depreciated. But there is inequality there, too. The tax is collected from some people, and others fail to either render or pay the tax.

Our local governments tax in this manner, each taxing agency having minor differences.

The ad valorem tax is assessed on all property that the agency decides shall be taxed as of January 1 of each year. For the most part, the agencies go by the list of items rendered by property owners. The collectors keep abreast of land sales through the county clerk's office.

During the first few months of the year, the collectors make up the lists of rendered property. The lists are supposed to reflect a true market value for each piece of property. As a matter of fact, the lists reflect an arbitrary percentage of value—Randall County uses about 20 per cent while the City of Canyon and the Canyon Independent School District use about 40 per cent.

When the tax lists are compiled, those which show changes from the previous year are taken out and submitted to a board of equalization. The board has the power to go through all the list if they so desire, but that's considerable additional work that would most likely prove futile, anyway. The boards of equalization are appointed by the city and school district, but the county commissioners court sits as the board.

The board of equalization goes over the changed valuations and decides whether the changes are right. If they are approved, the property owners whose property valuations have been raised are notified of the date of a public hearing, and may come and show why the valuations should not be raised.

After the hearings are over, the changed valuations are put back in the list and the tax roll is made up. (Actually, the work goes on concurrently.) The roll is then approved by the governing body (commissioners court, city commission, school board) and the tax collectors prepare tax statements and send them out for collection.

On occasion, taxpayer sentiment grows against the system and the governing body decides to "equalize" valuations. We had such an "equalization" in Randall County a few years ago. As practiced, "equalizations" do not equalize. When the survey is finished and the tax roll made up, the valuations shown are nowhere near to being equal in the sense that the valuations reflect the true market value of any property.

We believe that valuations will not be "equalized" until our local taxing agencies begin using a system of valuations reflecting market value rather than a percentage. It would work more in this manner: If my home, your farm and his store building were all valued as nearly as possible to their true value, you and I and he would know that we weren't being overvalued. The governing bodies would know what the total valuation is and could set the tax rate at the figure necessary to bring in the money needed.

In addition, if true, 100 per cent values were used, the tax collectors could set up depreciation schedules so that the taxable value of buildings would decrease as actual value decreased. Equalization boards would have a base upon which to make decisions on values of new construction, instead of an artificial "so much" per cent.

Using a true market value as a base for tax valuations would require a joint effort by all local tax agencies for a systematic survey of property giving locations of land; whether or not farm land is irrigated and what is being used for; sizes, ages and construction of all building; and every factor that could increase or decrease value. But when the survey was done, our tax rolls would reflect our value—farm land would be in its proper place, town property and utilities would be in theirs.

Then all our governing bodies would have to do is decide which items will be taxed (for instance, bank accounts can be taxed as personal property), add to find the taxable value and set the tax rate to bring in the necessary amount of money. In the end, most everyone would pay about the same amount of taxes he does now.

There is one thing to hold the plan off. If every county in Texas does not follow and re-value according to the actual worth, taxpayers in those counties which do would be penalized. The state's tax rate is set on the valuation used by the county. If this county uses a taxable valuation of five per cent of actual value, the state uses five per cent. If that county uses 90 per cent, the state uses 90 per cent.

We believe that the state is going to require market-value valuations sometime in the not-too-distant future. Until that time, any county which uses such a system is penalizing its taxpayers. But someday we'll see the system in operation—and after it gets started, we'll feel it's the only way, and "why didn't we do it before?"

A Sudden Thought

What Our Neighbors Say . . .

Scissor Snippings

"Oofie Abraham in the Canadian Record:

"My wife and I are leaving this afternoon (Wednesday) to take our little boy to college. "Little Oofie" is going to Trinity University at San Antonio. When you got a kid going to college it begins to dawn on you that old Father Time is rolling along. It doesn't seem so long since I started off to college knowing that I was fixing to set the world on fire. However, after taking a look at the calendar, it seems that it's been 27 years. Kinda forgotten my time table but it seems to me that by this time I was supposed to be working on my second million and can't remember whether I was supposed to be a Senator or Governor. Well, I give up on my first million, so guess I am working on my second now and I had the rather dubious distinction of having been Mayor so if you can't have a whole loaf, you can take less. Youth and Ambition are the things that make the world progress. It's better to have tried and lost than never to have tried at all. Youth, you were wonderful, I enjoyed every minute of it and wish I had it all to do over again. Oh, well, I'll see you this weekend."

Ernest Joiner in the Ralls Banner: "Another thing to be said for modern Christianity is that it has learned to do a mean rumba on the point of a needle. For one hour each week Christians gather in church to learn how to beat swords into plowshares. Then for the ensuing 40 hours (with time and a half for overtime) they gather in factories to beat plowshares into swords."

Paul Crume in the Dallas Morning News: "Mary Carden and Lydia Eubank report that they recently spent a long vacation of five minutes in our old home town, Lariat, the metropolis of precinct 1.

"They noticed its postoffice, church, combination general store and filling station, two cotton gins, grain elevators and eight and one-half dwellings but complain the town has no wagon yards.

"All we have to say is that if these Dallas people are going to take their wagons to Lariat, they will have to work out their own parking problem. Lariat took up the auto some time ago."

Douglas Meador in the Matador Tribune: "If freedom could be purchased as cheaply as a pound of bologna, some people would still demand their green stamps."

Newspaper staffs have a lot more members than they used to have. When I "broke in," the Memphis Commercial Appeal had, if my memory is correct, only seven reporters—not counting me, as I was working only for experience. The city editor was Arthur Forbes and the assistant city editor was Fred Beneke, but he worked mainly as a reporter. Tom Fauntleroy was the "star" reporter. George Fossick had the courthouse run. Pat Brown was on the federal building and river assignment—and the river in those days teemed with steamboats. (He was hard of hearing but that did not seem to handicap him.) The police reporter was named Penney. He resigned right after that with the announcement that he was going to Muskogee to work for a millionaire oil man—at $50 a week! (This was more than double his salary as a reporter.) The seventh reporter was named Neeley.

Seven reporters to record the activities of a city of 150,000! And for "the South's greatest newspaper," too.

I became a salaried member of the staff as the result of a combination of circumstances: Penney's resignation, Neeley's taking a leave to handle the publicity for Congressman Kenneth McKellar in his successful race for the United States Senate, and the arrival of the summer vacation season.

The newspaper's society department had two members: they were the city editor's daughters. Herbert Caldwell and Al Wilson comprised the sports department. Bill Adler was telegraph editor; Ned Courtney was tri-state editor and George McCormack, the night editor, also aided on the copy desk.

total acres per person will be 5.7 acres. The total acres of cropland per person will be 1.6 acres in the year 2000.

This is the reason why we should conserve the soil and build up the fertility. Each acre will have to produce more to take care of the increase in population. Each year new roads and housing development take more land out of cultivation.

In a few years the United States will only be producing enough food for its own people, and as the population grows it will take more intensive farming to produce more from each acre. So let's practice soil conservation for the future generations, that they may have plenty of food.

TOLD OFF!

A Chinese gentleman was trying to catch a train, and a porter was trying to locate his baggage. The Chinaman got very upset.

Finally, as the train was about to depart, he hammered upon the counter and exploded in these words:

"Pretty damn seldom where my bag go. She no fly. You no more fit run station than God's sake. That's all I hope."

BenJack Cage has more invitations than a pretty girl with a rich papa.

Cage's "dates" are with some half-dozen groups who want to know what caused ICT Insurance Co. to go under with multi-million-dollar losses. Cage was ICT manager until a year before its collapse.

After a grand jury session and lie detector test in Dallas, Cage moved to Austin. At the head of the line of questioners here is the Travis County grand jury. Other questioners include:

1. House general investigating committee.
2. Senate general investigating committee.
3. Renne Allred, attorney for the state liquidator, handling what remains of ICT.
4. Federal agents — from the postal inspection service and Securities Exchange Commission.

Governor Sounds Out Solons
Gov. Price Daniel has asked legislators for a "frank expression of their attitudes toward the proposed special session."

In an individual letter to each member, the governor outlined the session goals: 1) a lobby registration bill, 2) a bill requiring registration of those who represent others before state agencies, 3) a bill setting up a study on how to prevent spread of crime and 4) legislation to develop a state master water plan.

No new taxes will be needed to finance any of these projects, or the session itself, the governor's letter contended.

Best guesses are that, barring stringent opposition from the lawmakers themselves, the session will be called for Oct. 15.

Sunnyhill HD Club Officers Elected

Mrs. O. O. Henry was re-elected president of the Sunnyhill Home Demonstration Club at a meeting Thursday in the home of Mrs. D. O. Allison. Serving as vice president for the coming year will be Mrs. T. L. Henry.

Other officers elected were Mrs. R. B. Gist Jr., secretary-treasurer; Mrs. E. W. Miller, council representative; Mrs. R. O. Williams, reporter; Mrs. D. L. Allison, foods demonstrator.

The program for the meeting was on packing and carrying lunches. In accordance with the theme for the day, sandwiches, cookies and coffee were served.

Present were Mrs. O. O. Henry, Mrs. T. L. Henry, Mrs. R. B. Gist Jr., Mrs. E. W. Miller, Mrs. R. O. Williams, Mrs. D. L. Allison, and a visitor, Myra Nell Culp.

Named To Tax Commission
Three business experts from over the state will join with lawmakers in making a thorough study of the state and local tax structure.

Named by Governor Daniel to the Texas Tax Study Commission are Dr. John R. Stockton, Austin, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research; John McKee of Dallas, executive in the Ford Motor Co.'s Dallas plant; Hugo Loewenstern Sr., Amarillo real estate dealer. Three senators and three representatives also will serve on the Commission.

New Map Available
A new map, loaded with historical and geographic information about Texas, has just been published by the General Land Office. Copies are available without charge. Schools are expected to find it particularly useful.

Markings include the lakes, mountains, rivers, dams, reservoirs, off-shore tidelands, state-owned lands, old cattle trails and stage-coach routes.

Retail Sales Up
Retail sales in Texas during July increased two per cent over June, nine per cent over July of last year.

Latest figures from the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research show Austin merchants out in front compared to other cities. Their increases: seven per cent over June, 12 per cent over a year ago.

Other leaders: San Antonio, up 10 per cent from '56; Dallas and Houston, each up nine per cent; El Paso, seven per cent; Fort Worth, two per cent.

There'll Be A Wait
Owners of land in the path of new state highways face a delay before getting their money for it.

Under new law state pays half the cost of right of way buying for state roads. But since the money is to come from higher automobile license fees, the state won't have it until next year after people buy new plates.

In the most recent group of road building projects authorized by the State Highway Commission, it was expressly stated that money for land buying would not be available until after March, 1958.

No Leniency for DWIs
Motorists who lose their drivers licenses for drunken driving needn't expect to get them back before the suspension period is over.

State Board of Pardons and Paroles said it is no longer even making recommendations for early return for licenses. Governor Daniel, who must approve the recommendations, has made it clear, said the board, that he doesn't favor leniency for DWI cases.

Law takes away license for six months on first conviction, a year on second conviction.

More Money for Schools
State aid to Texas public schools has been raised $2 per pupil. It's now at a record-breaking $80 per child.

State Board of Education upped the allocation after State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert reported a revenue estimate nearly $4 million higher than his previous estimate.

Present outlook is that the state's bill for educating its 1,923,849 pupils will be a whopping $336,116,108.

Leon R. Graham, member of the Texas Education Agency staff, has been advanced to the post of assistant commissioner of education for administration. He replaces Bascom B. Behind the year's biggest sales success

The year's biggest engineering success

The '57 Ford was redesigned from the ground up... with a completely redesigned frame—new suspensions, front and rear—and a new built-for-keeps body. And at the heart of this new "Inner Ford," you can have the Thunderbird's own V-8 engine!

Long, lean and lovely! Not only does the '57 Ford act like a fine car... it looks the part, too—with over 17 feet of big-car beauty in all Fairlane models.

With a low, low price that's an old Ford custom! It's a new kind of Ford... for the old kind of money. Model for model, Ford's actually the lowest priced car of the low-price three.* Any wonder the '57 Ford outsells 'em all?

Meeting on Community Center Held; Clubs To Be Asked Four Questions

An initial step was taken Tuesday night toward the organization of a community center for Canyon at a meeting of representatives from 10 organizations and clubs in the VFW Hall. In addition, three other interested Canyon citizens were present.

Acting as chairman of the group, Riley Troth opened the meeting by telling the group he felt a community center was greatly needed in Canyon. Citing the difficulty he had in finding a place for the meeting Tuesday night, he said, "If a handful can't find a place to meet then the need is there."

Troth asked the representatives to consider the following questions and present them to their respective groups so that a response from their organizations could be made by Oct. 20. The questions are:

1. Is the organization interested?

2. What are the organization's peculiar needs in a community center—kitchen facilities, etc?

3. Who is to represent the organization in a united group from which officers are to be elected?

4. What financial support can the organization give?

Those organizations which had been asked to attend the meeting and were not present are to be contacted so that this information may be given to them and they may elect their representative, the name of such person to be presented to Troth not later than Oct. 20 so that the group can meet Oct. 22.

When the needs of each club are known plans for the building will be drawn by Claude Newton Harrison free of charge and a cost estimate will be made.

Each organization is being asked to make a statement of the amount of financial support it would be able to give in order that no burden fall on any business man or any individual.

Refreshments were served. The next meeting is to be Sept. 26 with Mrs. Toni Dewey.

Virginia Costley Heads HD Club

Newly elected president for the Las Amigas Home Demonstration Club is Mrs. Virginia Costley. Mrs. Costley was elected Sept. 9 at a meeting of the home demonstration club in her home.

Vice president is Mrs. Clara Stark and secretary is Mrs. Jean Costley. Mrs. Toni Dewey was elected council representative.

The program on packing and carrying lunches and the council report were given by Mrs. Jean Costley.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. E. T. Deavours, Mrs. Lewis Thomas, Mrs. Lowery and Mrs. Bob Gatten. A new member present was Mrs. Floyd Thomas.

Refreshments were served. The next meeting is to be Sept. 26 with Mrs. Toni Dewey.

New Faculty Guests Of Canyon Rotarians

A bright pink postcard in the mailbox promises social success, if not fame and fortune. Somebody's "Course for Women in Personal Development" can help us with modeling, walking, sitting, standing; make-up and fashions; conversation, entertaining, how to get along with men; introductions and acknowledgements; remembering names and faces; finances. And as if this isn't enough to get in 10 easy lessons, it adds, "How to be a more interesting woman."

We can use help in all these ways, and a few others: how to get along with women, children and animals, particularly barking dogs and cats that catch birds; the diplomatic approach to a stubborn jar lid or leaky faucet; the right time to make a telephone call. But we wonder if anybody can teach us in 30 hours what we haven't learned in 365 days a year for about a half-century.

We'd like to have a chat with the guy who sent the card. Does he charge more, for instance, if a woman is already old enough to know but hasn't learned? When, if ever, is it too late to improve personality? Would corrective make-up show how to disguise gray hairs, lines around the mouth, a sagging chin? How is he going to teach finances if he gets an inexperienced bride, a wage-earner, a millionaire's wife and a pauper all in the same class?

Although the postcard didn't say how much the course would cost, we're sure it's worth the money, because these are the lessons from life that don't come easy. Regretfully, we pass up this bright pink promise of a rosy future. The truth is we're so busy doing things the way we now do them that we haven't time for a course in self-improvement.

TELEPHONE TALK

IMPROVE STUDIES? ?

We've been working with some of the dorm leaders, House Mothers, and business office people to add to the telephones at the college this fall. A private line is going to be installed in each unit of the new boys and girls dorms.

The point of this improved communication system is, of course, so boys can call the coeds in their classes and help them with their homework. It's certainly encouraging to see such helpful academic attitudes.

SAFETY BACK TO SCHOOL

Well, it's September and school bells are ringing again. It's a good time of year to remind ourselves to be even more cautious in our driving — especially until we get accustomed again to "school stops" and small-fry pedestrians.

Here at the telephone company, we've always stressed safe driving — "Safety consciousness" as well as care and skill handling our cars and trucks.

Telephone men like Bob Gough, Jack Williams, Charles Watson and A. B. Hamlin deserve much credit. Year in and year out, they drive 10,000 or more "safe" miles. Thanks to their records and similar ones established by telephone drivers in other cities, Southwestern Bell again won the National Safety Council's Award of Honor in 1956.

DON'T RUN! REACH!

Next time your telephone rings, think about this: Can you reach out and answer it . . . or do you have to run for it?

Is it handy? Or is it in some out-of-the-way place? Maybe even on a different floor?

The cost of having telephones wherever you need them around the house is surprisingly low, especially in comparison to the comfort and convenience they give you.

Each extension phone costs only $.75 a month plus a one-time installation charge.

Why don't you call or come by the telephone business office? Let us help you plan complete, convenient telephone service. More and more people are learning the modern idea is to have phones within easy reach.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Shower Honors Sandra Curtis

A recent miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. J. R. Parker, Canyon Road, honored Sandra Sue Curtis, who became the bride of Edward Ray Wells Saturday evening.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. A. M. Cunningham, Mrs. E. L. Hardaway, Mrs. P. L. Pitt, Mrs. E. H. Wright, Mrs. C. A. Castleman, Mrs. Leonard Winters, Mrs. Crews Henry, Mrs. Lon Fanning and Mrs. Forrest Gruner.

The honoree's chosen colors of bronze and gold were carried out in the decorations. Laid with a white lace over gold cloth, the table was centered with a wheel cart filled with garden flowers.

Jane Burnett presided at the serving table and Janis Wright registered the 35 guests.

Garden Club Has Program on Bulbs

Bulbs and bulb planting were discussed Thursday night at a meeting of the Canyon Garden Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillier. Mrs. Warren Parker and Mrs. Hud Prichard presented the program.

Mrs. Parker gave a review of the history of the tulips from their origin in Turkey and their later spread from Constantinople to Vienna, to Germany and then to Holland. "After the introduction of the tulip in Holland, wild speculation in tulip stock ensued, with the equivalent of as much as $5,200 being paid for a single bulb," Mrs. Parker said.

Following this review, Mrs. Prichard discussed the procedure and time for planting tulip and daffodil bulbs. As a special note of interest, Mrs. Prichard said she had discovered in her research on bulbs that the daffodil and jonquil are actually Narcissus the names of daffodil and jonquil being common names for these two species of Narcissus.

A brief business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Parker, president. The buying of a box of get-well cards by the treasurer, Mrs. Jeannette Robbins, was authorized by the club. Refreshments were served.

PLEASE DO!

"Dear Editor," wrote the anxious correspondent, "I am in love with a very homely girl, while a very pretty girl with lots of money wants me to marry her. What shall I do?"

The editor replied: "By all means marry the one you love, and send me the name and address of the other."

MRS. EDWARD CHARLES HARRELL

Flynn-Harrell Marriage Is Read; Couple on Wedding Trip to Europe

In a recent ceremony in Port Arthur, Carol Ray Flynn, daughter of Henry Flynn of Port Arthur, became the bride of Edward Charles Harrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Harrell of Claude. Dr. Louis J. Kovar officiated at the service read in the First Presbyterian Church.

Nuptial vows were pledged before an altar which held a sunburst arrangement of large white chrysanthemums, white gladioli and jade foliage. Flanking a pair of gold candelabra decorated with jade foliage and white satin ribbon, gold and white standards were filled with crescent shaped arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. White satin bows garlanded with English ivy marked the family pews.

Mrs. H. Showalter was organist and Dorothy Neblett, Canyon, was soloist.

Mr. Flynn gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white satin gown in a princess silhouette designed with a moyenage neckline edged with jewel encrusted Alencon lace. The pearl and opal-accented sequined lace extended into the top of the short draped sleeves which were complemented by formal length lace gloves. The paneled front of the skirt was outlined by Alencon lace applique and at the sides gathered fullness swept into a circular court train.

Gathered white silk illusion was attached to a jeweled shadow cloche and cascaded over the shoulders of the gown to fingertip length. Her bouquet was of white orchid, stephanotis and white bridal roses.

Matron-of-honor for her sister was Mrs. James B. Kyser of Dayton, Ohio. Bridesmaids were Carolyn Brown and Patsy Eden, both of Houston.

Designed with Empire bodices, draped portrait necklines and full skirts with bustle back bows, the attendants' gowns were of aqua lustre satin. Their accessories were of matching tints, and their bouquets were of yellow roses and English ivy.

Mary Howse of Wichita, Kan., niece of the bridegroom, lighted the candles.

Best man was Willie S. Bennett of Amarillo. Groomsmen were William E. Howse, Wichita, Kan., and Dan Smith, Houston. James Cundiff, Canyon, and Murray Jordan, Brady, were ushers.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Harrell, wore a winter wisteria chiffon dress and a corsage of white gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at Rose Hill Manor where the mantels in the reception rooms were decorated with arrangements of gladioli and the refreshment board was decorated with the bride's bouquet and a four-tiered wedding cake.

Assisting in the house party were Mrs. W. E. Howse, Wichita, Kan., Mrs. George Sims III, and Mrs. Frank Moulckers, Port Arthur, Patsy Heard, Houston, Mary Lou Rogers, Huntsville, Sondra Hampton, Fort Worth, and Tracy Giesen, Port Arthur.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. E. D. Harrell and Mrs. N. A. Croson, Canyon; Mrs. Mary A. Guerin of Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. Mabel T. McGee, Mrs. Maud Carr, Mrs. Willie McCorquodale and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Harrell of Houston; A. J. Tigges of New York City; Mrs. Austin Fullingim of Petersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gumm of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Croson of Corpus Christi.

Following a trip to Europe aboard the SS Mauritania, the couple will live at Claude. For the trip, the bride chose a beige wool jersey suit with matching hat, brown lizard accessories and

Eagles Brand Whitefaces Friday Buffs Begin With Win

Rugged on defense and fumbling on offense, the Canyon Eagles defeated the Hereford Whitefaces of District 1-AAA by a score of 7-0 Friday night in Hereford.

While holding the Whitefaces to only 117 yards on the ground, the Eagles fumbled and lost the ball six times during the non-conference game. A defensive match for both teams, the game saw the Eagles average 4.67 yards per carry to 1.91 for Hereford.

Canyon's score came near the end of the third quarter, while Hereford finished the game with their only serious scoring threat—with the ball on the Canyon seven yard line when only six seconds remained in the game. One play took the ball to the six yard line and the clock to zero.

The Eagles threatened Hereford's goal twice more, once losing the ball on downs on the Hereford 14 and once losing the ball on a fumble on the Hereford 10.

Canyon's score came with 2:20 left in the third quarter at the end of a 70-yard drive. To begin the series, the Eagles got the ball from a Hereford punt on the Canyon 30. Ronnie Huyck carried the ball six yards, Miller three and Huyck another four for a first down.

Miller then went for six and for two and Eddie Boydston picked up the first down on the Hereford 45 after running four yards.

Pruett carried for one, Huyck for three and then for 11 to put the ball on the Hereford 30.

In the next series of downs, Miller made two yards then Huyck took the ball on a romp around left end and went 28 yards to the goal line. Miller carried the ball for the extra point, making the score 7-0.

Hereford's threat came after the Ross Bond led off scoring with a slant off left tackle to cap a sustained drive.

In the second quarter, Mike Pool intercepted a pass thrown by Hereford Quarterback James Brogdon and raced 35 yards to a TD. The extra point brought the score to 13-0 at the half.

In the third quarter, Bond ran again for a score and the extra point was good a second time.

The fourth quarter score came when Jerry Richardson capped another drive with a score around right end.

In two more plays the ball was on the Canyon 28. Quarterback Fred Lookingbill passed in the flat to Jim Curtsinger who ran 21 yards to the Canyon 7. Curtsinger could pick up only one more yard before the game ended.

Boydston was the workhorse for the Eagles, carrying 19 times for 97 yards 14 of the carries were in the first half. Miller made 72 yards from 15 carries while Huyck

Hereford Frosh Top Canyon 7-2

A fourth quarter, five-yard run by Hereford Halfback Clyde Whitaker took a 2-0 game off the fire Thursday afternoon as the Hereford Freshmen downed the Canyon Freshmen 7-2.

Canyon picked up the two-point lead in the first quarter when a Hereford pitchout went wrong and a Hereford player recovered it in the end zone.

A drive in the fourth quarter put Hereford in position to make the touchdown. Eddie Skypala ran for the extra point.

NOT IN STYLE

Mrs. Smith took a great interest in the doings of her neighbors. It was a great day for her when a new arrival came to the house next door, and she watched with interest as furniture was carried into the house.

"What did you find out about the social standing of the folks across the street?" her husband asked her.

"They're not much," was the reply. "They have no automobile or radio or even a grand piano. I can't imagine what they have got."

"Perhaps," rejoined her husband, "they have a bank account."

OBEDIENT

Her Dad (mad) — What do you mean by necking my daughter?

SETTLED

"And can you cook the way my mother does?"

"Sure, if you can stand indigestion the way your father did."

Limiting their offense to only a few plays to keep scouts in the stands guessing, the West Texas State Buffaloes opened their 1957 season by dumping the McMurry Indians 20-7 Saturday night and showed the makings of a championship squad.

The Buffs showed flashes of brilliance, especially in the first quarter when they scored on each of the first two times they had the ball. Head Coach Frank Kimbrough began free substitution after the two touchdowns and kept it up through the game.

The only McMurry score was made against the WT third string on a 73-yard run by James Boyd.

West Texas picked up 19 first downs while moving the ball 434 yards on the ground and in the air. McMurry was limited to a total of 183 yards and seven first downs.

After taking the opening kickoff and shoving the ball deep into Indian territory, the Herd was put back to the 36 on a holding penalty. On third down, with 16 yards needed for a first, Quarterback Jack York faded back behind the 40-yard line and heaved a pass to end Tommy Coffey in the end zone. Coffey added the extra point to his own touchdown to give the Buffs the 7-0 lead.

After taking the kickoff, McMurry punted on fourth and the Buffs were ready to score again. They moved from their own 23 to the Indian one in nine plays, including a long 21-yard pass from York to Ken Ballard, and Bob (Red Dog) Ratliff bulled through for the second TD. Coffey kicked the second extra point.

Shortly after the beginning of the last quarter, the Herd got the ball on their own 43 yard line and started a drive. On fourth down, Charlie Sanders delayed, slid down the line, stomped and broke loose for a thrilling 50-yard race that ended when he was shoved out of bounds on the four.

On the third play following, Sanders finished the job he started on the long run and made the third WT touchdown. York attempted the extra-point kick but it went wide.

Coach Kimbrough put in the third string following the score and McMurry was turned loose for their only score. The Indians, on their own 25, picked up two yards then Boyd made his 73-yard score. Tommy McAdams kicked the extra point.

Highlight of AAUW Fall Program To Be Area Meeting Here Oct. 19

The president of the Canyon branch of the American Association of University Women, Mrs. Dan Sanders, has announced that the highlight of the fall program will be an area meeting in Canyon Oct. 19.

The president of the Texas chapters, Dr. Gladys Hicks, the Dean of Women at Baylor University, has called for the occasion in order to confer at once with delegates from the 12 Panhandle chapters of the AAUW. Representatives are expected from Lubbock, Perryton and 10 other area chapters.

After a coffee, there will be a workshop in the morning followed by a luncheon at which Dr. Hicks will be the speaker. The subject for the workshop is "Administration and Subject Matter Fields."

Consultants will be Dr. Hicks and Mrs. Burkella Oschner of Amarillo. Mrs. Oschner is regional vice president of the AAUW with responsibility for its affairs in Kansas, Arkansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas.

In making preparation for the coming year, Mrs. Sanders has appointed the following committees for the Canyon branch:

Yearbook: Chairman, Dr. Mattie Mack, Claudia Neelley, Mrs. H. P. Ball, Dr. Ima Barlow, Mrs. Ples Harper.

Membership: Chairman, Mrs. Joseph Findley, Ruth Cross, Mrs. Cecil Simms and Dr. Ruth Lowes.

The directors of the Canyon branch are anxious to include all eligible college women in the program for this year. Women who have completed two years of college are urged to call some member of the membership committee, or Mrs. Sanders, to discuss their membership in the organization.

The first meeting in the fall will be a tea at the home of Dean Ruth Cross. This is an annual party to which everyone interested in AAUW is invited. Mrs. Normand Madore, social chairman, will be in charge of the arrangements.

The organization meeting will be a luncheon Oct. 5 in the Blue Room of the college cafeteria. At this time the leaders of the various study groups will talk to the members about their plans.

In addition to the arts sections, the crafts and international relations groups, which have met for some time, there will be preparation made for a pleasure reading group. This group will only meet once, but will buy and exchange books published within the last few months of interest to the members.

If any AAUW members or prospective members wish to form other kinds of study sections, they are to contact Mrs. Sanders.

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

The First Session of the 85th Congress in Retrospect
On Aug. 30, 1957, at 3 o'clock and 57 minutes p. m., pursuant to House Concurrent Resolution 229, the first session of the 85th Congress adjourned sine die. On the same day at 4 o'clock and 22 minutes p. m., in accordance with the terms of House Concurrent Resolution 229, the Senate of the United States adjourned sine die. Unless there is a special session called by the President of the United States, which is not anticipated, the Congress will not be in session again until Jan. 7, 1958.

Needless to say, this has been a busy session. The House was in session a total of 141 days; the Senate 133 days. However, the Senate was in session 860 hours and 44 minutes, while the House was only in session 585 hours and 19 minutes. You will recall that there was a slight filibuster in the Senate which gave them added hours.

It is also recognized that the House of Representatives attends to business in a much speedier manner than the Senate. This is not intended as a reflection on the Senate. The fact is, under the House rules, debate is limited.

No Member can talk more than five minutes on an amendment to a pending bill without unanimous consent of the entire House. The general debate is usually limited to a few hours; hence, the greater speed in disposing of business. Some argue these same rules should be applied to the Senate, but that is, in my opinion, wrong. Extended debate in the Senate has, many times, brought about needed changes in legislation and has, on occasion, prevented the passage of legislation which was very dangerous. The Senate used 9,423 pages in the Congressional Record; the House of Representatives used 5,869.

The Senate passed 612 Senate bills and 346 House bills. The House passed 276 Senate bills and 610 House bills. Two Senate bills and three House bills were left in conference. These will be considered at the next session of Congress.

A total of 1,210 measures, including Senate and House bills, joint resolutions, concurrent resolutions and simple resolutions were passed by the Senate. The House passed 1,198 such measures. A total of 1,319 measures were reported to the Senate. 1,179 measures were reported to the House. The Senate filed 26 special reports; the House 60. Conference reports of the House numbered 36.

In the Senate 3,297 measures were introduced. This figure includes bills, joint resolutions, concurrent resolutions and simple resolutions. The total in the House was much greater. It was 10,716 of which were 9,609 bills, 461 joint resolutions, 230 concurrent resolutions and 416 simple resolutions. At the date of this writing, the President has vetoed one Senate bill and four House bills. The House had 120 quorum calls and 100 yea-and-nay votes. In other words, the roll was called 220 times. In the Senate there were 139 roll calls and 111 yea-and-nay votes.

Much more could be said about many measures which came before the Congress; however, probably the most important was the tremendous peacetime budget submitted by the President. He had requested approximately 72 billions of dollars. This included approximately 65 billion for expenditures for operation of the government, plus interest payments on the national debt which amounted to some 7 billions of dollars annually.

The Congress appropriated approximately 60 billions of dollars for the operation of the government, as against the 65 billion requested by the President. In other words, the budget request was reduced by approximately five billions of dollars.

This means the sharp economy ax of the Congress resulted in saving every man, woman and child in this country approximately $300 each in the operational expense of the federal government for this fiscal year.

The same kind of action in the next session of the Congress should result in a tax cut for those people in the middle and lower income brackets who most need relief. Our efforts will continue in that direction.

One of the most encouraging things to me in this past session of Congress was the general reaction of the public on so many of the highly controversial measures. It was very obvious that all Members of the Congress were hearing from the grass roots. This was pointed up in much of the debate and many times on the votes.

Ours is a government by the people. Their response or reaction to proposals and measures which affect their daily lives should be the guiding light of the Members of the legislative bodies, whether local, state or national. I was indeed fortunate to have such a great number of fine letters from the many good people who reside in the 18th Congressional District.

These letters gave me unbiased and unprejudiced views. I wish all districts in the United States were made up of such fine, understanding and helpful citizens as we have in the Panhandle of Texas.

Deadline Nears For Soil Bank

A reminder that the deadline is near for placing 1958 wheat allotment land in the acreage reserve portion of the soil bank was issued last week by Doyle G. Thomas, office manager of the Randall County ASC.

The date for signing agreements is Oct. 4. Thomas asked that farmers not wait until the last day before contacting the ASC office. The acreage reserve includes a limitation of $3000 per farmer per farm this year, Thomas said. In addition, a base acreage of all cash crops usually grown on the farm must be established before acreage can be entered in the reserve.

Thomas said that if farmers think they may put land in the reserve, they should contact his office as soon as possible in order to establish the base acreage. If a farmer changes his mind later, the base he has established will do no harm.

By base acreage, the ASC means the average acreage of cash crops seeded on the farm in 1956 and 1957.

Other requirements for participating in the soil bank acreage reserve are that the farmer must control erosion and noxious weeds, plant cover crops that cannot be harvested or grazed and the acreage must be staked by the farmer and measured by the ASC.

A listing of requirements for participation in the soil bank is available at the ASC office.

Maddox Reports On Civil Defense

Mrs. Monroe Maddox reported Sept. 4 to the Westside Home Demonstration Club on "We Were Trapped by Radioactive Fall Out," an article which was written by Dr. John Clark and appeared in Saturday Evening Post.

The council report by Mrs. Dick Barrett was followed by a report by Mrs. Ray Metcalf, delegate to the Texas Home Demonstration Association meeting held in Houston during August.

Mrs. Metcalf told the women the theme for the convention, attended by 800 club women, was "Christian Homes, Hope of the Nation." She discussed the 4-H and recreation workshop which she attended.

Roll call was answered by telling of new luncheon ideas.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. R. A. Burrus, to Mrs. J. W. Bourn, Mrs. R. O. McKay, Mrs. J. N. Seay, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. J. T. Brown, Mrs. E. W. Bourn, Mrs. Lewis Harvey, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Fred Richard, Mrs. Maddox and Mrs. Jerry Swearingen.

The next meeting is to be Sept. 18 with Mrs. Lewis Harvey.

Habeas Corpus literally means, "you may have the body."

Clubs Here Honor State President

A dinner honoring Mrs. A. J. House, president of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, was given Sept. 10 in the new west addition of the West Texas State College cafeteria by the three federation clubs in Canyon.

Speaking to members of the Woman's Book Club, Sue Hite Club and Junior Woman's Book Club, Mrs. House said, "I think federation is a way of life, a path of service."

She continued, "If it (federation) doesn't help you to be a better citizen, homemaker and mother, I think you have probably wasted your time being a federated club woman."

In outlining the purpose of federated clubs, she said the clubs existed for study, self-improvement, sociability and service. "Service is our watchword," Mrs. House told the group.

She outlined briefly three of the departments of the federation, the first one, international affairs.

Book Club Slates Tour of Homes

A tour of Canyon homes was proposed and accepted as a fund-raising project for the Junior Woman's Book Club at a meeting Friday in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum. Proceeds are to go to the proposed community center building.

The home tour, presented to the club by Mrs. Bill Davis, fund raising projects chairman, is to be Sept. 29 from 3 to 6 p. m. Tickets, $1 each, are to go on sale and the list of homes for the tour is to be announced soon, Mrs. Davis said.

Another fund raising project, that of game night, was also presented and accepted. Mrs. Clarence Maynard, community projects chairman, presented the community projects, which were accepted.

A brief outline of the year's programs was given by Mrs. Bill Cherry, program chairman, and Mrs. Avenit Lair, budget chairman, gave the budget report which the club voted to accept.

The federation counselor, Mrs. Bob Lindsey, reported on the board of directors meeting at Tulia and Mrs. H. R. Fulton Jr., fine arts chairman, gave a report on the fine arts plans for the club year.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Bruce Winn, president.

An informal social hour followed the completion of business. Present were Mrs. Weldon Hager, Mrs. Bill Cleavinger, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. R. B. Gist Jr., Mrs. Maynard, Mrs. W. J. Wooten Jr., Mrs. Emil Olson, Mrs. Lair, Mrs. Don Standley, Mrs. Fulton, Mrs. Cherry, Mrs. Lindsey, Mrs. Winn, Mrs. James M. White, Mrs. Harry Ball, Mrs. C. E. Thompson and Mrs. Dick Loudder.

Cherry Blossoms

By DOVIE CHERRY

Tucked away in the back pages of a recent edition of the Amarillo Globe-Times was a small story about a baby-sitting co-op. This is one of several stories I've seen in the last year on such a corporation.

It sounds interesting and I've often wondered how one would work out in Canyon. The organization is fairly simple and is designed for the benefit of busy mothers and their baby-sitting problems.

The baby-sitting co-op I read about the other day was in Kalamazoo, Mich. Here, the mothers had organized into a group which issued paper money in two denominations. One denomination is for a half hour's service and the other for a full hour.

A mother who finds she needs to get away for half an hour or more calls on an available member of Mothers, Inc., as it is called, and pays her in the money of the corporation.

Each mother starts off with the same amount of money, and the woman who finds she is running short stays home and baby-sits enough to 'balance' her accounts. If she accumulates a surplus she can then have a baby-sitter more often.

This is very similar to one I read about a year ago. Also organized up in Yankee land, this co-op had a secretary, who was paid a small amount to keep up with the time withdrawn or credited to members. The idea of the corporation money sounds much more simple, though.

This corporation was organized by blocks to ease the problem of keeping track of the member's use of the baby-sitting advantages.

Oh, say, I remember where I read about this first co-op. It was in the July edition of the Ladies Home Journal.

Anyway, this co-op had proved very successful. The mothers felt more at ease leaving their children with other mothers they knew and found it a blessing when they unexpectedly had to leave the house for say, just half an hour.

As this co-op worked, the mother left her child or children at the home of the mother who was available. It was agreed that the baby-sitting mother was to keep the child underhand as she would her own, but was not to conduct any sort of kindergarten.

No exchanges are made by baby-sitting at night unless by special agreement.

In a way it sounds like a fine idea and in a way it doesn't. There's the problem of suddenly finding yourself swamped by a house full of kids. But, then, wouldn't it be nice to have all that surplus of credits coming to you? And, it might mean an answer to emergency baby-sitting needs, and an ease on the budget.

After I first read of this baby-sitting co-op, I wrote about 20 letters to mothers who I knew had one or more children. I received a lone response from a mother who thought it a fine idea, but said it wouldn't work in her case because she had an older child who baby-sat when she needed to leave the house.

I'm still wondering what a lot of those mothers thought and what a lot of others think. I don't know but what it might prove successful and a true help to mothers.

As one said to me the other day in regard to activities outside the home. She said it isn't easy to get away to meetings when you can't find a baby-sitter at the last minute and when it's costing you 75 cents an hour on a limited budget.

It's becoming a community minded Canyon.

A committee composed of three representatives from the Sue Hite Club, the Woman's Book Club and the Junior Woman's Book Club met Monday afternoon to get the ball rolling on the Christmas card project to start a fund drive for a community center for Canyon.

There's talk a'brewin' of a community-wide night program on international affairs to be held sometime this fall.

And there are about a dozen young wives, no exaggeration, who plan to increase the town's population about November. Now that's what I call being community minded.

Heck, why be so non-personal. About a dozen of us young wives that is. I really don't believe it's too well a concealed fact, anyway.

In fact, the large number of expectant wives is just about like a situation which existed in Mason, Mich., several years ago.

Six of the deacon's wives and the preacher's wife of the Presbyterian Church there were all pregnant at the same time. A columnist for the Ingham County News in Mason heard of a meeting which the deacons' wives and the preacher's wife were all present.

He published it and got a contest started to see who won, the baby boys or the baby girls. The girls did, 7-0. He ran the contest under the title of "Pregnancy Contest."

If I could get the consent to publish or at least have on file the names of all these expectant mothers in Canyon, we might just see who wins here, the boys or the girls.

Might even call it something

Exchange Vows

MR. AND MRS. AUBREY McDOWELL

Doris Cooper, Aubrey McDowell Married in Recent Home Ceremony

Doris Cooper, daughter of Claud Cooper, is the recent bride of Aubrey McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. McDowell. Nuptial vows were pledged by the couple in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Pettit before an archway decorated with baskets of white gladioli. The Rev. Pettit read the double-ring service.

Glynetta Johnson, pianist, played traditional wedding marches and accompanied Arlene Johnson, who sang "Whither Thou Goest."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length dress of white chiffon and carried a white Bible pinned with white carnations with white streamers and pearls.

Attending her sister as matron-of-honor, Mrs. Bill Waldrop wore a light blue taffeta dress with white accessories.

Bill Waldrop was best man.

like a Pink and Blue Contest or a Diaper Derby. What do you say girls?

While on such a line of thought, however unusual it may be for a column, I might say a few words about a grandmother way up in Cornwall, Ont.

It seems this grandmother is quite a champ when it comes to children. She had 17 children, one dead, and now has 124 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. One of her children now has 16 children!

It may not be the world's record but it's enough of a record for me.

At the reception following the ceremony, cake was served by Almeta Howard, and punch was ladled by Norma Glenn. The table was laid with a white lace cloth over blue.

For the wedding trip to East Texas, the bride chose a pink linen suit with white accessories. The couple is to make their home at 2604 Second Avenue.
